HOW WE ARE DIFFERENT

One very essential ingredient: experience.

You're getting a seasoned, senior team of talent.

We bring a very personalized, custom approach to every contract and every project.

We start with a lot of listening. At RMA there is no "cookie-cutter" board retreat or fundraising plan.

We are highly accessible to you – in person, by phone, by email, by VoIP – and always include far more hours, resources, ideas, and connections than what is written in a contract.

HOW WE CAN HELP

A consultant can see things that you can't—because you're too close to the subject or too weary to focus

A consultant can help you break down overwhelming challenges into logical, linear steps.

A consultant can help build—or revive—the commitment of your board and staff, and can help you navigate through the inevitable conflicts that occur.

A consultant can teach you the approaches and skills you'll use to sustain your organization.
